Our NewTech School

Culture Contract

Behavior

- Our behavior is based on Trust, Respect, and Responsibility
- We will trust our teams and be trustworthy.
- We will respect others and their property.
- We will be responsible for our work and our behavior.
- We will follow our group contracts.

Technology

The use of technology in the classroom is encouraged.

- We will use technology (laptops, phones, tablets, iPods…) in a positive way so that we can be trusted.
  - Positive uses for technology include but are not limited to: research, note-taking, texting or emailing a student when he or she is absent, and listening to music when appropriate.
- We will not use social media in class.
- We are encouraged to be professional in our use of social media outside of class.
- We will show respect to others' technology and we will not touch others' property without permission.

Absences

- We are responsible for contacting (text, email, or call) our group when we are absent. We will make-up any work that we have missed (the next day, if possible).
- When we know in advance that we will be absent, we are responsible for letting our group members know so that we can plan accordingly.

- We will show respect to our class and to our group by being on time each day. If we are late, we will apologize and explain the cause to our teacher, apologize to our group, and start working.

Dress & Appearance

- We will dress professionally for presentations and on other special days.
- We will always follow VWHS dress code.
